1. Welcome Message from the Vice-Chancellor

Welcome to Nexora University. You have joined an institution that believes education is not just about acquiring knowledge — it is about building character, developing critical thinking, and preparing to contribute meaningfully to society. This handbook outlines the standards of behaviour, rights, and responsibilities that every Nexora student must be familiar with. We expect you to uphold the values of integrity, respect, and excellence in everything you do on campus.

— Prof. Dr. Arjun Mehta, Vice-Chancellor, Nexora University

2. Student Rights & Responsibilities

2.1 Every Student Has the Right To:

- Quality education delivered by qualified faculty without discrimination
- Access all campus facilities — library, labs, sports, hostels — as per eligibility
- A safe, inclusive, and discrimination-free campus environment
- Voice concerns and grievances through proper channels without fear of retaliation
- Participate in student union elections, cultural activities, and events
- Receive timely academic feedback, marks, and result information
- Privacy of personal information as per university data protection policy

2.2 Every Student Has the Responsibility To:

- Maintain minimum 75% attendance in all courses
- Submit assignments, projects, and reports by stipulated deadlines
- Respect all faculty, staff, fellow students, and campus visitors
- Protect and maintain all university property, equipment, and facilities
- Follow all rules in the academic and examination regulations handbook
- Report incidents of ragging, sexual harassment, or misconduct immediately
- Maintain the dignity and reputation of the institution in public and online spaces

4. Anti-Ragging Policy

4.1 Definition & Zero-Tolerance Stance

Ragging is defined as any act, whether physical, verbal, written, or electronic/cyber, that causes physical or psychological harm, discomfort, fear, embarrassment, or humiliation to a student. Nexora University has a ZERO TOLERANCE policy on ragging.

Any form of ragging — including seniors asking juniors to introduce themselves in a demeaning manner, demanding tasks, or any initiation ritual — is treated as a criminal offence under UGC Anti-Ragging Regulations 2009.

Offence Level	Examples	Punishment
Level 1 – Minor	Verbal teasing, mocking junior	Written warning + community service 20 hrs
Level 2 – Moderate	Forcing actions, abusive language	Suspension 1 semester + ₹5,000 fine
Level 3 – Severe	Physical harm, group ragging	Rustication + police FIR under IPC 304 A
Level 4 – Sexual Ragging	Any sexually offensive act	Permanent expulsion + criminal case

4.2 Anti-Ragging Helplines
